Mini-Tastings in October!

You asked, and now we're delivering. We've always had our monthly tastings that usually feature a particular varietal. Many people asked what we were going to do to benefit those wineries that we sell. So we figured we would put together some smaller tastings that feature a winery. It can be a local winery, or an international winery that is popular locally. October 7th we'll have Chandon and October 21st we'll have Talbott winery. We'll have representatives on hand from the winery to educate us, taste with us, and sign bottles. And the best part...THE TASTING IS FREE! We'll usually offer a special deal on that wine during the event, so be sure to buy a bottle or two, get 'em signed, and enjoy some free tasting!
